

If your child likes to listen to Pop music, this is the class for them to create and explore their own dance movements. A large part of Hip-Hop dance is about creativity, improvisation, and letting the music move you. During the 45 minute class, children will move to music they love, through simple choreography. The moves encourage body awareness, as well as improve balance, coordination and control. This class is a great way to encourage creativity and expression for children.

About the Instructor:

With 10 years of dance teaching experience, Sisi has a background in ballroom dance and hip hop and is currently a certified Pure Barre teacher and teaches hip hop at Fan Yang Dance Studio in San Bruno.

To sign up:

- 1. Please complete and submit the online registration form.
- 2. If you are paying by Paypal (@sisitchen), please select "send to friend" and write "Dance", your child's name, and grade in the PayPal note box. If you are paying by cheque, please make it payable to Sisi Chen and write "Dance", your child's name and grade on your check's memo section, and drop it off at school before registration ends.

All fees are non-refundable except for teacher illness or school closure